Director of QA (5/10/10)

Our firm is engaged in a search for a Director of QA role in Pennsylvania. Not sure if you might know someone that could take advantage of this opportunity, but thought it couldn't hurt to ask.

A bit about the company:

- * Orthopedic device manufacturer
- * Products, people and the technology span more than two decades in 30 countries
- * Product pipeline with more than 40 devices and instruments

REQUIREMENTS:

- * BA/BS in Science, Engineering or Medical Technology
- * 5 - 10 years of experience in quality assurance and regulatory affairs
- * Strong knowledge of FDA QSR, MDD and ISO 13485:2003 requirements
- * Management experience
- * Experience in the orthopedic industry (preferred)

RESPONSIBILITIES: This is a key leadership position for a fast-growing division of the organization, any direction would be much appreciated! Interested applicants can forward their resume (MS Word Format only, please) to Hannah and she will put them in touch with the hiring manager.
